We are thankful!

As the year draws to a close, we are thankful.

The Legacy Theater is proudly celebrating its fifth year in Carthage, Illinois, bringing quality, live entertainment to the Tri-state Area. The vision of “Live at the Legacy...” remains bright, even during some trying times.

Performers returned to our stage in June for two great shows, after 15 long months of “lights off”. Our eager and enthusiastic patrons were thrilled with Suzi Bogguss and Hotel California. The full fall schedule ends Dec. 19 with a return of the Texas Tenors.

We are thankful for our performers and patrons who have returned to The Legacy Theater. We have taken every precaution, with special cleaning and masking, to assure that everyone enjoys the shows with comfort and safety.

We are thankful that The Legacy Theater shares a history with two prominent colleges that called Carthage their home. The auditorium, built in 1953, was used by students and faculty of Carthage College and later by Robert Morris College.

We are thankful that The Legacy Theater is an important regional asset for the economy, drawing people to the area and enhancing quality of life for those who live in Western Illinois.

The list of accomplishments in the past five years is amazing:

- ❖ Major improvements were made to the floor, the balcony, sound and lighting;
- ❖ 22 bus group tours have brought patrons to the theater;
- ❖ Over 21,000 patrons have come to shows, attending from 31 states and Canada;
- ❖ Strong donor support has continued, especially during closure due to Covid-19;
- ❖ City of Carthage continues its strong support of The Legacy Theater

We are thankful for this confidence and faith shown for The Legacy Theater, creating a community asset that will continue for years to come. The future looks exciting!

We are thankful for continued support. Here’s how you can help us celebrate five years of live performances at The Legacy Theater.

- * Call or go on-line to order tickets for shows in our great fall line-up.
- * Pledge a gift for the next five years. (Theater staff will kindly remind you each year.)
- * Make a single donation of $50, $500, $5,000 or more as a celebratory gift.

Join us in celebrating our first five years, and sharing an exciting future for years to come!
